MULTI-TALENTED SENIORS: Nico Eagan, Colin Chandel and Natalie Jensen explore the complexities of Arthur Miller's The Crucible in January. Eagan also won the DeHart Award and served as Secretary of GSA while earning the Fine Arts Distinction. STEM scholar Chandel won multiple awards en route to class Valedictorian and played a key role in helping tennis win another state championship. Jensen was editor-in-chief of the yearbook while playing three sports and earning the Global Studies diploma. Photo by Eason Zhou

NO PASSING FAD: As part of her Fine Arts Distinction portfolio, Gracean Laine Ratliff's displayed her AP Art project in the Logan Gallery within the Wenk Student Commons. The series dealt with the topic of her DeHart Project: "Wrapping the Neurotypical Brain around a Neurodivergent One." She won the Graphic Design Award as a junior and the Art Award as a senior while MVP of two sports. Photo by Rabia Ferron
